Consent to Receive Promotional Emails

Version of 10.11.2026

This is a translation for convenience. The Russian text is legally binding.

The Operator is Kadurin Aleksandr Anatolevich, INN 111603182707. By ticking “I consent to receive promotional emails about SAYRIL at the email address provided” during registration or in the profile of the Personal Account on the website https://sayril.ru, the owner of the Personal Account gives the Operator consent:

– to receive, at the email address of the Personal Account, promotional emails about the SAYRIL computer program: about its new versions, features, and prices;

– to the processing of their personal data for this purpose: the email address, the name or pseudonym specified in the Personal Account, the internal user account number, and the date and time of the consent and its withdrawal.

The Operator collects, records, stores, rectifies, uses for sending emails, deletes, and destroys this data using automated means. The data is received only by persons who, under a contract with the Operator, support the operation of the Website and deliver emails (section 8 of the Personal Data Processing Policy).

The consent is valid until it is withdrawn or until the Personal Account is closed (the user account is deleted).

The consent is optional. Without it, registration, purchase, licenses, refunds, and support are available. Emails under the contract (confirmation codes, messages about purchases, the security of the Personal Account, and changes to documents) are sent regardless of the consent.

The consent may be withdrawn at any time: by unticking the mark in the profile of the Personal Account, by following the “Unsubscribe” link in a promotional email, or by writing to sayril-info@mail.ru from the email address of the Personal Account. The Operator stops sending promotional emails immediately after receiving the withdrawal.

After the consent is withdrawn, the Operator keeps a record of it for three years: the user account number, the version of the consent, and the date, time, and method of its giving and withdrawal. The record is needed to confirm that the emails were sent with the consent of the owner of the Personal Account (part 1 of Article 18 of Federal Law No. 38-FZ of 13.03.2006 “On Advertising”). Other terms of processing, the rights of the owner of the Personal Account as a personal data subject, and the time limits for responding to their requests are set by the Personal Data Processing Policy.
